Anchorage, AK 99503-2821

Dear Supplier:

Enclosed is the billing request for © 2001 Pearson Learning Developmental Reading Assessment (DRA). The print run for this series is up to 40,000 with North American English Language Rights.

We require that you acknowledge you have the right to grant reproduction rights to the images on the attached list.

We further request that you grant us non-exclusive electronic rights option that would allow us to use this same selection in another type of electronic medium (e.g. floppy disc, video or laser disc, CD-I, CD-Rom, or another electronic media) should we decide to do so in the future. We are not now asking for the rights for any particular product. We are simply requesting that we have the option to incorporate the selection in the future once our plans are more definitive. We will not use the selection without notifying you and agreeing on a fee, which would be based on the then current market rate for our particular use of the selection.

Please be sure your social security or federal ID number appears on the invoice. This will expedite the payment process.

Please fax your invoice to my attention to:

Dear Supplier:

Enclosed is the billing request for © 2001 Pearson Learning Developmental Reading Assessment (DRA). The print run for this series is up to 40,000 with North American, English language rights.

NOTE: If one of your images is on the self cover, please be advised that the printed material for this project is an assessment material and therefore, the covers are soft self covers. I've included a sample for your reference. These individual readers are all part of a binder that the teacher uses for child assessment.

Any discount you can give us because the cover is not a traditional hard/soft book cover would greatly be appreciated.

We require that you acknowledge you have the right to grant reproduction rights to the images on the attached list.

Please be sure your social security or federal ID number appears on the invoice. This will expedite the payment process.

Thanks for your help in making this project a success. If you have any questions feel free to contact me at 973-739-8399, by fax at 973-739-8502, or via e-mail at Elaine.Soures@pearsonlearning.com
